

Dulwich Choral Society

with David Elwin piano
Gerard Collett baritone

Directed by Aidan Oliver

Saturday
2 July,
7.30pm

¡VIVA ESPAÑA!

From the cathedral to the bullring – Dulwich Choral Society presents a colourful fiesta of music from and about Spain.

Inspired by this year's 400th anniversary of Tomás Luis da Victoria, the programme includes masterpieces from the Golden Age of Spanish polyphony, together with carols, folksongs, and of course extracts from the most famous musical depiction of Spain: Bizet's Carmen.

Outstanding young baritone Gerard Collett will complete the programme with songs including Ravel's effervescent cycle Don Quichotte à Dulcinée.

Performed in the beautiful church of St Stephen's, College Road, with Spanish-style refreshments served in the interval.

Programme to include:

Habanera and March of the Toreadors from Bizet's Carmen
Masterpieces by Victoria, Guerrero and Padilla Elgar Spanish Serenade and Javier Busto Ave Maria
Ravel Don Quichotte à Dulcinée
Shostakovich Spanish Songs

Gerard Collett baritone

Duo Prizewinner,
Wigmore International
Song Competition
Inaugural winner of the Peter Hulsen
Orchestral Song Award

Tickets £13 (£6 for under 17s) from
The Art Stationers, Dulwich Village
SE21 7BN; South London Music, Grove Vale, East Dulwich SE22 8DY; or call 07973 886981. (£15 on the door)

www.dulwichchoralsociety.org.uk

St Stephen's Church,
College Road,
South Dulwich,
London SE21 7HN